

The General Evaluator

Hello ladies and gentlemen, fellow Toastmasters and distinguish guests, my role is to evaluate the meeting in general, by evaluating I mean giving some feedback and suggestions for the futur.

I will call for reports from the speech evaluators, timer, grammarian and ah counter. Next I will evaluate the S.A.A, Toastmaster.

Mr Timer

What is the time for the evaluation?

Our first evaluator is

.... will be evaluating speech , the title of her speech is

Thank youfor your evaluation.

Our second evaluator is

Now that we heard 3 evaluations, I will ask you to vote for the best evaluator but before that, is there any timing infraction Mr Timer? Thank you

Thank you, I will call the grammarian to tell us about the word today, which was ...

Thank you Mr Grammarian...

I call now AH counter to give us his feedback.....

Thank you Mr or Miss AH counter.....

Thank you everyone, I am going to give my own evaluation of this evening, we start almost on time, we will try to do better than that next time... The meeting in general was fine.

The room was well set up... the coffee was ready and the snacks wonderful. Thank you and myself for your

The toastmaster, it was an amazing evening, you told us about the new program, the old program and how everything work, I might suggest you to use more vocal variety.... or energy, and be caution with people's name....

Mr Table Topic Master, it was enjoyable, dynamic and creative, you could have ask the

Mr Timer, Thank you for being on task and remind us how to go back to our seats after the break...for next time, there is a way to put the cards on the desk..

The Toast, very interesting and educative, we learn a lot

As improvement.....

That's conclude my part but before giving back to the TM, I will ask you if you enjoyed the meeting.Thanks

Let's welcome back our Toastmaster of the day.....
